DELPHOS ST. JOHN'S BENEFIT
DINNER AND AUCTION 2023

We will, we will ...ROCK YOU! Or at least ROCK THE NIGHT away with you at this year's Benefit Auction on Friday, April 14, in the St. John's All Saints Building. This annual event is a great way to enjoy time with family and friends, while supporting our St. John's Schools. This event raised over $75,000 for our students and school projects last year alone. We have a wonderful evening planned – a delicious dinner, Reverse Raffle, Oral and Silent Auctions, and a variety of other fun raffles and games of chance. We are also encouraging everyone this year to dress appropriate to the ROCK theme – your version, your era of choice.

Doors open at 6:00 p.m., dinner served at 6:30 p.m., with the Reverse Raffle cash drawing starting around 7:00 p.m. Our cash drawings include a Top Prize of $5,000 and Second prize of $1,500. The top 10 places in the Reverse Raffle will walk away winners. The Oral Auction will begin around 8:15 p.m., with Silent Auction closing at staggered times, beginning at 9:00 p.m. Other Raffle winners will be drawn at 9:30 p.m. If you would like to be a sponsor, purchase tickets, or donate any NEW auction item, there are REQUIRED forms in the Scrip Room at the Ministry Center. Forms must be returned by mail or to the Ministry Center with check/payment. Please call 419-692-5371, ext. 4210 or email advancement@delphosstjohns.org with questions, to learn more about the event, or find out how you can get involved. Stay up-to-date on this event and more through Delphos St. John's website and Facebook page.

SEMINARIAN'S TAKE

Happy Easter!!!

I want to share with you one of my favorite Easter reflections. This comes from an ancient homily on Holy Saturday. The priest and religious read this every year on Holy Saturday morning. This homily comes from the Second century but the Church still has us read it every year because it shows us the meaning of Easter:

"The Lord descends into Hades. Something strange is happening – there is a great silence on earth today, a great silence and stillness. The whole earth keeps silence because the King is asleep. The earth trembled and is still because God has fallen asleep in the flesh and He has raised up all who have slept ever since the world began. God has died in the flesh and hell trembles with fear.

He has gone to search for our first parent, as for a lost sheep. Greatly desiring to visit those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death, He has gone to free from sorrow the captives Adam and Eve, He who is both God and the son of Eve. The Lord approached them bearing the cross, the weapon that had won Him the victory. At the sight of Him, Adam, the first man He had created, struck his breast in terror and cried out to everyone: "My Lord be with you all." Christ answered him: "And with your spirit." He took him by the hand and raised him up, saying: "Awake, O sleeper, and rise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

I am your God, who for your sake have become your Son. Out of love for you and for your descendants, I now, by my own authority, command all who are held in bondage to come forth, all who are in darkness to be enlightened, all who are sleeping to arise. I order you, O sleeper, to awake. I did not create you to be held a prisoner in Hades. Rise from the dead, for I am the life of the dead. Rise up, work of my hands, you who were created in my image. Rise, let us leave this place, for you are in me and I am in you; together, we form only one person and we cannot be separated.

For your sake, I, your God, became your Son; I, the Lord, took the form of a slave; I, whose home is above the heavens, descended to the earth and beneath the earth. For your sake, for the sake of man, I became like a man without help, free among the dead. For the sake of you, who left a garden, I was betrayed to the Jews in a garden, and I was crucified in a garden.

See on my face the spittle I received in order to restore to you the life I once breathed into you. See there the marks of the blows I received in order to refashion your warped nature in my image. On my back, see the marks of the scourging I endured to remove the burden of sin that weighs upon your back. See my hands, nailed firmly to a tree, for you who once wickedly stretched out your hand to a tree.

I slept on the cross and a sword pierced my side for you who slept in paradise and brought forth Eve from your side. My side has healed the pain in yours. My sleep will rouse you from your sleep in Hades. The sword that pierced me has sheathed the sword that was turned against you.

Rise, let us leave this place. The enemy led you out of the earthly paradise. I will not restore you to that paradise, but I will enthrone you in Heaven. I forbade you the tree that was only a symbol of life, but see, I who am life itself am now one with you. I appointed cherubim to guard you as slaves are guarded, but now I make them worship you as God. The throne formed by cherubim awaits you, its bearers swift and eager. The bridal chamber is adorned, the banquet is ready, the eternal dwelling places are prepared, the treasure houses of all good things lie open. The Kingdom of Heaven has been prepared for you from all eternity."

THIS WEEK IN PARISH HISTORY By: Jack Bockey

The Baptistry: The original baptistry was located just inside the main doors. Here is the description from the 1894 history book: "The baptistry was canopy shaped. Behind the baptistry, a painting showed the Baptism of Jesus by St. John the Baptist, in the river Jordan. On the ceiling was a dove, symbolic of the Holy Spirit. The baptistry was enclosed by an iron railing." In 1944, a narthex was added and a new baptismal font was installed. In 1968, a new wooden baptismal font was put next to St. Joseph. In 1998, the present baptismal font was installed in the spot where the original baptismal font was. Hallelujah, Christ is Risen!

Alleluia!

Today is the biggest feast of the year! Jesus rose from the dead on the first Easter Sunday. By rising from the dead, He showed that He was God and that everything He had said was true. It showed His followers that He wasn't gone forever- it gave them hope. Also, because He rose from the dead, now we can rise from the dead too after we die.

Imagine what it would be like to be one of Jesus' friends when He died on the cross. You were hoping that He would be the saviour that would overthrow the bad government and become the king, but now He was beaten and killed! How would you feel? What would you be doing after this horrible weekend was over? It would seem pretty hopeless, wouldn't it?

But then- some of the women come running and say that Jesus rose from the dead! Would you believe them? And then imagine that you are in the room with the other disciples with the doors locked and suddenly Jesus is standing in the room, saying, "Peace be with you!" Now what would you think?

for rejoicing!*
JESUS IS ALIVE!

He will be speaking on "The Path to Priesthood through Prayer, Sacraments, and The Holy Spirit."

DIOCESE

SENATE BILL 11

As a decades-long champion of parental choice in education, the Catholic Conference of Ohio is urging legislators to support SB 11 (Enact the Parental Education Freedom Act) and allow every student in the state of Ohio the opportunity to receive an EdChoice Scholarship. This support adheres to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which states, "As those first responsible for the education of their children, parents have the right to choose a school for them which corresponds to their own convictions. This right is fundamental" (CCC 2229).

Let's continue to advocate for this fundamental right and to allow students of all backgrounds and income levels to attend Catholic schools. Ask your Ohio Senator to support SB 11 and uphold the family as the central social institution of society by sending the following message.

You can Write something like this to your State Senators:

As a firm believer of parental choice in education as a fundamental right, I urge you to support SB 11 (Enact the Parental Education Freedom Act) and allow every student in the state of Ohio the opportunity to receive an EdChoice Scholarship. Most students enrolled in Catholic schools are from working-poor and middle-income families, many of whom sacrifice financially to choose Catholic schools for their children. Your support of SB 11 would greatly aid these families and allow students of all backgrounds and income levels to attend Catholic schools. Please vote for SB 11 to support Ohio families and expand educational opportunities for all of Ohio's children.
