Very Reverend Dennis G. Walsh
Pastor
St. John the Evangelist Parish, Delphos
201 North Pierce Street
Delphos, OH 45833

Dear Father Walsh,

All good greetings in the Lord! Please accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for St. John the Evangelist Parish achieving and surpassing its 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal goal. Warm congratulations! The generosity of your faith community in achieving its goal so quickly is a testament to St. John the Evangelist Parish being a place Where Charity & Love Prevail, as our ACA theme proclaims.

As you know, the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) enables us to teach, feed, heal and provide hope for thousands of people throughout our diocese. Our seminarians and permanent deacons are able to receive their education and formation for service to our parishes; engaged couples are able properly to prepare for reception of the sacrament of holy matrimony; our youth are able to receive a Catholic education and formation; and our Catholic values are tirelessly promoted through advocacy, education and protection of life efforts. These are just some of the ministries supported by the generosity received through the ACA. The achievement of your parish goal makes these efforts all the more possible.

Again, please know how truly grateful I am for your hard work, committed efforts and wonderful generosity. Thank you for sharing the love of Christ and the hope of His Passion, Death and Resurrection to all those in your community. Be assured of my prayers. May God bless you abundantly!

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,

Most Reverend Daniel E. Thomas
Bishop of Toledo
