THIS WEEK IN PARISH HISTORY

The ambry is a cabinet used to store the holy oils. These include the Sacred Chrism, Oil of Catechumens, and the Oil of the Sick. Traditionally, the ambry is located on or in the wall of the sanctuary and is usually labeled with the words "Olea Sancta" (Holy Oils). It was also lined with purple silk. Since the 1970s, most new ambrys are located near the baptismal font and have a glass door which allows people to see the oils. Our church's original ambry was located on the north wall of the sanctuary just outside the priest sacristy door. It was there until 1998 when it was removed and replaced with the oil stone.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT PASCHAL BAYLON*Saint of the Day: May 17 – Patron Saint of Shepherds*

In Paschal's lifetime the Spanish empire in the New World was at the height of its power, though France and England were soon to reduce its influence. The 16th century has been called the Golden Age of the Church in Spain, for it gave birth to Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, Teresa of Avila, John of the Cross, Peter of Alcantara, Francis Solano, and Salvator of Horta.

Paschal's Spanish parents were poor and pious. Between the ages of seven and 24 he worked as a shepherd and began a life of mortification. He was able to pray on the job and was especially attentive to the church bell, which rang at the Elevation during Mass. Paschal had a very honest streak in him. He once offered to pay owners of crops for any damage his animals caused!

In 1564, Paschal joined the Friars Minor and gave himself wholeheartedly to a life of penance. Though he was urged to study for the priesthood, he chose to be a brother. At various times he served as porter, cook, gardener, and official beggar.

Paschal was careful to observe the vow of poverty. He would never waste any food or anything given for the use of the friars. When he was porter and took care of the poor coming to the door, he developed a reputation for great generosity. The friars sometimes tried to moderate his liberality! Paschal spent his spare moments praying before the Blessed Sacrament. In time, many people sought his wise counsel. People flocked to his tomb immediately after his burial; miracles were reported promptly. Paschal was canonized in 1690 and was named patron of eucharistic congresses and societies in 1897.

Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament occupied much of Saint Francis' energy. Most of his letters were to promote devotion to the Eucharist. Paschal shared that concern. An hour in prayer before our Lord in the Eucharist could teach all of us a great deal.
